Clerk of Court Newsletter March 17, 2020

To Attorneys, CM/ECF Users, and the Public:

In recognition of the need to mitigate the risk of further spread of the COVID-19 virus and balance this need against the recognition that bankruptcy cases and proceedings are individually and collectively often inextricably part of a continuing process of either liquidation or reorganization, the Court is taking the following steps:

- Changes in Court Appearances - Counsel may appear by telephone for scheduled court hearings, including those who are residents of the Eastern District, notwithstanding Local Rule 9070, in addition to appearing in person. Additional information concerning call in procedures will be posted on the Court's website for the respective court docket in the near future.
- Limiting Building Access- Restrictions on entering any courthouse in the Eastern District of Missouri were ordered on March 13, 2020. Additional information can be found here <https://www.moeb.uscourts.gov/news/update-restrictions-visitors-courthouses-eastern-district-missouri-federal-court>
- Meetings of Creditors – All §341 Meetings of Creditors scheduled for March 23, 2020 through April 10, 2020 throughout the district are being continued to a later date. Amended Meeting Notices will be sent notifying parties and creditors of new meeting dates.
- Seminars – The Brown Bag Lunch scheduled for March 26, 2020 in St Louis and the CLE titled "Ethics Goes to the Movies" scheduled for April 6, 2020 in Cape Girardeau will be postponed and rescheduled for later in the year.
