

E-Claims Actions Instructions

Electronic Proof of Claim Filing (ePOC), Electronic Withdrawal of Claim Filing (eWOC), and Electronic Proof of Claim Supplementation (eSUPP) are programs designed to streamline claims processing by allowing Creditors to file, amend, withdraw, and supplement a claim over the internet from a link on the Court's website. The ePOC program will automatically prepare the Official Bankruptcy Proof of Claim form (B410) based on the information entered into the program whereas filers will need to complete the relevant forms in advance and attach them when using eWOC and eSUPP. When the filing for Proof of Claim, Amended Claim, Withdrawal of a Claim, or Claim Supplement is complete, a confirmation message shows the claim or pleading was officially filed with the Court.

This document contains detailed instructions on how to file, amend, withdraw, and supplement Proof of Claim using the electronic claims actions programs.
