_____ Amended Creditor Matrix and Verification of Matrix

You are hereby notified that the above Debtor(s) filed Amended Schedules and/or Matrix and added you as a creditor in this case. The following documents are attached for you. (Check all that are attached)

- _____ A copy of the most recently filed Schedule listing you as a creditor;
- _____ A copy of the original Order and Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors & Deadlines showing the debtor's full social security number;
- _____ A copy of any order or notice that set a deadline by which proofs of claim are or were to be filed along with a proof of claim form, if applicable.

2. Claims. You are further notified that: (Check one option)

- _____ This is a no-asset case. It is unnecessary to file a claim now. If it is determined there are assets to distribute, creditors will receive a notice setting a deadline to file claims.
- _____ This is an asset case. You may file a proof of claim by the deadline specified in the order or notice that set a deadline by which proofs of claim are or were to be filed, or within 30 days of the date of service of this notice, whichever is later.

3. Discharge. The Order and Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case includes in box 9 the original deadline for creditors to file a complaint to determine dischargeability pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(c) or to object to discharge pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 727(c). The amendment of schedules and/or the matrix to add creditors does not extend the time for a newly added creditor or any other party to object to a debtor's discharge or to the dischargeability of a debt. If the deadline has not expired, the debtor or another party in interest may file and serve a motion requesting an extension of the deadline. If the deadline has expired, a party in interest may request an extension of the deadline to object to the discharge as provided in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4004(b)(2). The Court may rule on the motion without a hearing.
