- Per the Order of Chief Judge Sippel dated August 31, 2022, all federal courts in the Eastern District of Missouri are open to the general public. The general public may access the courthouses in the Eastern District of Missouri subject to the restrictions found therein. The Bankruptcy Court is open between the hours of 8:30am and 4:30pm, which includes the Bankruptcy Court's public service counter. Despite the public service counter being open for in person business, the Bankruptcy Court continues to accept filings via temporary drop box or mail for those wishing to file remotely.
- All persons visiting a courthouse must meet authorized health and safety guidelines (no positive COVID-19 diagnosis within the past five (5) days, no contact with a COVID-19 positive person in last five (5), no COVID-19 symptoms, etc.) to enter.
- Wearing a mask or face covering over the nose and mouth is not required, but is recommended, especially for unvaccinated persons and persons for whom COVID-19 and its variants pose an elevated health risk. This requirement is consistent with national and local health guidance.
- While the Bankruptcy Court remains open, we encourage all persons (including attorneys) to only appear at the courthouse if they have a specific purpose for doing so, and only if they feel comfortable. The Bankruptcy Court is still allowing business to be conducted remotely. Contact Information for the Bankruptcy Court and the United States Trustee's Office is as follows:
